

What happens when seven premium gin aficionados and a master distiller come together to craft a California style dry gin? You get Dutch & Dewey Distillery's Horse Mountain Dry Gin.

Dutch & Dewey Distillery's Horse Mountain Dry Gin is vapor phase infused in the still designed and manufactured by the owner/distiller that gently extracts the essential oils and compounds from the ten botanicals and produces carefully balanced, smooth, and complex tastes and aromas.

Awards include: American Distilling Institute's 2017 Judging of Craft Spirits Silver and SIP Awards 2019 Gold.

Enjoy our gin neat, on the rocks, or to enhance cocktails. Here's the recipe for our Cool as a Cucumber cocktail to get you started.

COOL AS A CUCUMBER

1 thin slice of cucumber, muddled

1 ounce freshly squeezed lemon juice

1 ounce simple syrup

1 1/2 ounces Dutch & Dewey Distillery Horse Mountain Gin

1/2 ounce tonic water

Shake ingredients, except tonic water, over ice; strain; and top with tonic water.

The American Distilling Institute certifies that Dutch & Dewey Distillery's spirits are entirely produced, distilled, and bottled on-premise in Humboldt County, California.

Dutch & Dewey Distillery's spirits are handcrafted in the mountains of Northern California from captured rainwater and using solar- and hydro-powered energy in a sustainably run distillery. The small batch fractionating stills were designed and built by the owner/distiller to produce premium spirits.
